

Job Advertising Title:

Manager Project Management and Engineering

Role Summary:

This position is the voice at the Leadership Team level of Project Management and Engineering

Responsibilities & Requirements:

Effectively lead and mentor Project Management and Bill of Material Engineering teams.

Embrace and drive accountability and performance-based culture focused on financial excellence, supported by CIP and driven by initiative, teamwork and personal accountability.

Provide leadership to achieve operational excellence through analysis of data, corrective action and continual improvement.

Allocate resources to effectively achieve customer satisfaction and OTP.

Drive the 'Customer First' philosophy throughout the organization.

Review and schedule customer orders daily with manufacturing and assign BOM Writer.

Create standards for Bills of Materials and standards for Project Managers.

Implement "cradle to grave" ownership in PM team, including dispute collection.

Implement strong change management and change control process, including BOM changes, and BOM archiving

Develop team through PE licenses and PMP certifications

Assist with customer complaints and correction actions

Requirements:

BS in Engineering

5 years in Leadership role over Project Management and/or Engineering

Strong communication and organizational skill

Preferred Experience / Skills :

Preferred Experience / Skills:

PE highly preferred

Related experience in manufacturing, construction or pump installation environment or the ground water markets.

Experience using ERP systems like Symix or SAP